TEMPLARS' PARADE.

Thirty Thousand Sir Knights in Full Uniform in Line.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 26.—It is estimated that 300,000 people yesterday witnessed the parade of the Knights Templar. Thirty thousand sir knights in full uniform were in line, forming an imposing spectacle with which to begin the twenty-eighth triennial convocation. The march started at 9:40 a. m. and was finished at 1:30 p. m., after covering a distance of four miles. The course was protected by wires strung along the sidewalks to keep spectators in check. The weather early was clear and cool, but by noon the heat became oppressive and there were 11 cases of prostration, due to heat and exhaustion. Sir Knight Irwin Batard, of Greenville, Ind., was overcome while marching. His condition last night was reported serious. The other cases were not serious. A portion of the Y. M. C. A. reviewing stand at Fourth street and Broadway collapsed. Half a dozen people sustained bruises and Mrs. James Carnahan of Washington, suffered a broken ankle.

The crack commanderies from Chicago, Pittsburg and San Francisco attracted special attention by their magnificent appearance. Columbia commandery No. 2, of Washington, came in for wild applause all along the route as Sir Knight Rear Admiral Schley is a member of it and had been expected to march with his comrades. Although he was absent at every point in the course, when the Washington men appeared, the crowd took up the cry "Schley, Schley! Hurrah for Schley!" Later when the formal welcome to the knights was extended by Judge Baker, of Louisville, acting for Gov. Beckham, and ex-Congressman W. C. P. Breckinridge, the mention of his name elicited applause so enthusiastic that both speakers were compelled to stop several minutes.

The report of Grand Master Reuben H. Lloyd, submitted to the grand encampment, contained the following: The order is in a most satisfactory and healthy condition, and steadily growing. The present term which began July 1, 1899, commenced with 114,540 members and closed with 125,108. The report of the grand treasurer showed receipts of $11,009, and net cash resources of $47,236. The report of the grand recorder, William H. Mayo, contained these figures: Net gain in membership in 1899, 2,444; in 1900, 2,308; in 1901, 4,304, the year ended July 1. There are at present 1,059 commanderies, with a membership of 125,108.

Fireworks, excursions on the river and other diversions occupied the visitors at night. A large audience was also entertained at the Horse Show building by a programme designed to show how the southern darkey enjoys himself. There was a camp meeting spectacle, a cakewalk and old-time melodies by a chorus of 200 colored people.
